

Today Hope dedicates the new city library building on South Elm street, the gift of Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Cannon to their home town, which will serve also the people of Hempstead county and south-west Arkansas.

Supplementing the original cash gift of the Cannon family, which was $20,000, was the donation of brick by N. P. O'Neal, and the free services of B. W. Edwards in constructing the building. And the people of Hope also helped, raising $4,500 by subscription to buy new equipment for the library.

More have subjects for their public donations, but none goes as deeply into our American civilization as the gift of a public library. For the most fundamental of all the props that hold up a self-governing nation is the literate citizen.

Persons who cannot have no real claim on the right to vote, yet it is an imperfect democracy where the voting franchise is limited by illiteracy. It will be a shock to many Americans to learn that the illiterate is a higher percentage of illiterates in the world's civilized nations.

Therefore the gift of a public library anywhere in America is something to be twice thankful for—thankful for the thoughtfulness of the donors, and thankful for the bright future it forecasts for our country.

Photic Family Bolsters Chances of Wise Candidate By JAMES STRASHER

The New York visitor of Gov. and Mrs. Earl Warren and their three pretty daughters prompted us to predict the important and underestimated role of candidates' children in American politics.

When a man is a mere dark horse or favorite son or even a front-runner, his domestic setting is of passing interest to us. It is of passing interest to us to stand pretty much on his public record and statements. But once he is chosen to run for either of the country's two top offices, his children, if any, become public property.

Thanks to these offspring—and the co-operation of photographers and editors—the candidate suddenly becomes a human being as well as a politician. Millions of voters who are also parents discover that the candidate is not a mere abstraction, but a man in himself, a badge of virtue. But we wouldn't be surprised if, in past elections, a covey of young hasn't tipped a few votes of sentimental parents in favor of the candidate.

The wise candidate, we believe, should try to have some fairly young and, if possible, pretty children at the time he's making his big pitch for high office. Theodore Roosevelt's five didn't hurt, but chances a bit. We even knew some bitter opponents of the second Roosevelt who would grow momentarily tender and forgiving at the sight of the president reading Dickens to the assembled family at Christmas.

So Governor Warren's six children, along with Governor Dewey's two, may be put down as assets to the Republican ticket. The candidate for vice president wisely took the girls on tour, so as to complement rather than detract from his running mate's accomplishments as a parent. We assume that Mr. Warren is saving the three boys as a sort of first team to throw into the campaign later on when the going gets really hot.

Sometimes this political publicity is as helpful to the children as it is to their father. One of Woodrow Wilson's daughters was launched on a brief singing career during her father's tenure of office. And we would guess that Mr. Truman's residence in the White House has helped Margaret about as much as the other hand, candidates' children may get an early and disillusioning taste of the fickleness of public adulation. The recent

Too Many Reds Getting Into United States Through UN, Declares State Department

By KENNETH DAVID

Washington, July 20 — (UP) — The State Department has informed Congress that "an alarming" number of subversive foreign agents are entering this country through the United Nations, it was learned today.

Department officials recently told a Senate subcommittee that several hundred known "subversive" agents of foreign powers have managed to get into the United States in this manner. This government is powerless to do anything about it, they said.

To the best of their knowledge, they said, these foreign agents are roaming around the country and a government agency — not even the FBI — is trying to keep tabs on them.

The information was given to the Senate subcommittee on immigration and naturalization by Robert C. Alexander, assistant chief of the State Department's visa division, and R. Clyde Larkin, head of the visa division's security unit.

The subcommittee, headed by Sen. Chapman Revercomb, R., W. Va., is investigating this government's immigration policies.

Alexander told the subcommittee that these subversives include Moscow-trained "terrorists," espionage agents, alien who "foment discord" and others trained in undercover activities "contrary to the peace and good order of this country."

He emphasized that he does not believe the U. N. is responsible. But he said these agents are using "the United Nations as a front or a cover or a blind for carrying on

Annexation Piney Grove School Asked

A legal publication by E. R. Brown, Hempstead county school supervisor, in today's Star gave notice of the filing of petitions July 9 for the proposed dissolution of Piney Grove School District No. 17 and the annexation of its territory to Hope School District 1-A. Blevins School District No. 2, and Emmet School District No. 13.

The notice recites that a purported majority of the qualified electors of the Piney Grove district have signed the petition.

The legal publication gives exact descriptions of how the Piney Grove territory will be divided between Hope, Blevins and Emmet.

The notice recites that there has been filed with the County Board of Education a petition from a majority of the qualified electors of Emmet School District No. 13, Nevada county, asking that this district be re-formed out of the territory now comprising it plus certain described areas from Piney Grove District No. 17, Hempstead county. The new district would also be known as Emmet School District No. 13 of Nevada county.

The notice orders a meeting of the County Board of Education of Hempstead county, at the county supervisor's office in the courthouse here, at 7:30 o'clock the night of August 10, at which time all interested parties will be heard.

Fighting in Palestine Continues

Cairo, July 20 — (AP) — Jewish sources in Haifa said today fighting still was going on in northern Palestine on the third day of the truce imposed by the United Nations.

A main Cairo thoroughfare was blasted last night when a single unidentified plane raided the Egyptian capital. Investigators of the Egyptian interior ministry and explosive experts said the plane dropped an "aerial mine" which damaged a motion picture theater and two department stores.

Premier Fahmy Nokrashy Pasha has a cabinet meeting and rushed to the scene of the explosion. He told newsmen: "If this plane proves to have been a Zionist plane and such an action is repeated by the Zionists, we will reply immediately."

The Israeli government said it was not one of its planes. A spokesman in Tel Aviv said Israeli planes dropped bombs over Cairo July 15 and "no Israeli plane has been in the vicinity of Cairo since."

A Syrian communiqué accused the Jews of violating the truce Sunday night and Monday morning. The Syrian foreign office has protested to Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator. "The Jews have accused the Syrians of truce violations."

Lone Sentry Guards Grave of Pershing

By ELTON C. FAY

Washington, July 20 — (AP) — A lone sentry kept lonely vigil today over the Arlington grave of General of the Armies John J. Pershing.

By custom, a guard is maintained for 72 hours over the graves of famous men buried in the national cemetery. For the next 30 days, flags will fly at half-staff at all army posts.

The stirring tribute that the military gave the general was matched by a spontaneous, spontaneous farewell from the public. More than 30,000 men, women and children stood through a beating Washington rainstorm to see the long cortege and the caisson with its life-draped casket roll by.

Upward of 3,500 soldiers, sailors, marines and airmen marched the four-mile route from the capitol to Arlington—and marching with them were a dozen generals.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, who in World War II was Supreme Allied Commander in Europe, led the long trek, rain soaking through the uniform he donned again for the occasion. Gen. Omar Bradley, chief of staff, Gen. Jacob L. Devers, chief of field armies, and the commanders of the four armies in the United States strode through the rain and, later, the blistering July sun that followed it.

President Truman came to the memorial amphitheatre at Arlington for the rites.

There he heard the Army Chief of Chaplains, Maj. Gen. Luther D. Miller, say, in prayer for Pershing: "We thank thee for the memories of this great soldier of our country—his skill and courage on the fields of battle and in the pursuits of peace."

When it was over, the bronze caisson was replaced on the caisson for the short trip down past the tomb of the Unknown Soldier to the grave at the top of a little hill on the slope of the cemetery.

There the chaplain said: "The march of another soldier is ended. His life was a long and noble one. Victories all won and he lies down to rest while awaiting the bugle's call."

A nearby battery barked on the 15-gun salute to the highest ranking general in the United States. The men fired the volley. The bugler sounded "taps."

And from a distance came the "echo taps," sounded by another unseen bugler. The notes came in the still, hot late afternoon air as if from another world—perhaps the "Fidled's Green" to which an old cavalryman's song says, "old cavalrymen like Black Jack Pershing."

Richard Arnes, subcommittee staff director, asked whether they have been issued visas and have been admitted into the United States even though they are known subversives.

"That is right," replied Alexander.

Grain Pact Approval Is Sought

Washington, July 20 — (AP) — A top Senate Republican leader hinted today that a legislative hot potato, the civil rights bill, might be thrown into the lap of Congress as soon as it meets Monday.

Senator Wherry (R-Nebr.), acting majority floor leader, told reporters: "The only legislation in the president's program that I know of that is ready to be civil rights bills." He said anything else would take time for processing by committees.

In calling the legislators back to work, President Truman placed in the top of a long list of measures he thinks Congress should deal with promptly.

Today Mr. Truman added these two items to recommendations he will make to Congress: (1) Senate ratification of the international agreement; (2) congressional approval of $65,000,000 loan for erection of permanent United Nations headquarters in New York.

Wherry also said that Herbert E. Brownell, campaign manager for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, has arrived in Washington to set up headquarters as part of the presidential campaign. Wherry expects to confer with Brownell soon.

Senate and House leaders will meet informally Monday morning, Wherry said. The Senate Republican Policy Committee, headed by Senator Taft (R-Ohio), will meet Monday afternoon to talk over Senate plans.

Wherry accused Mr. Truman of "violating the spirit" of the congressional organization act by his recall of Congress.

He referred to a section of the act which says that unless the nation is at war, or the chief executive has proclaimed a national emergency, Congress must adjourn by July 31 of each year, unless it provides otherwise.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross said ratification of the international wheat agreement and approving a loan for building U. N. headquarters are part of Mr. Truman's program for relieving world tension and promoting world peace.

Ross said Mr. Truman has not decided yet whether he will deliver his message or messages to Congress in person or send them to Capitol Hill next week.

He said drafting of anti-inflation bill is just being started. Ross said he does not have any information whether the president will ask for price controls on meat or other commodities.

Asked about the cost-of-living bill, Ross said:

"The whole subject is still being studied. The bill has not been drafted yet."

The Republicans have a chance in the extra session to nail down one plank in their party's 1948 platform which Mr. Truman doesn't like.

"This bill to give the states title to coastal lands lying clear out to sea in a three-mile belt beyond the low tide mark. Some of these lands are oil-rich. The bill has been passed by the House. It was closed by the Senate in the closing rush of the regular session last month, although listed as desirable by the Senate GOP Policy Committee."

Now it may come up for Senate consideration.

Ross said Mr. Truman definitely.

Motorcyclist Who Splashed Mud on General Pershing Got a Promotion From Him

By HAL BOYLE

New York — (AP) — It isn't every sergeant in the army who is promoted for splashing mud all over a full-ranking general.

Lodge (The Old Sarge), a sergeant in the American Army who got a higher rank by giving Gen. John J. Pershing an impromptu mud bath.

Lodge, an associated Press correspondent overseas during the second world war, served as an enlisted man with Pershing in Mexico and in France.

Serving as a sniper with the infantry, Lodge was gassed in one early engagement in the first world war and hit in both legs by German machine gun bullets in another battle. When he recovered, he was assigned to duty as a motorcycle dispatch rider.

"I was the only dispatch rider in the whole outfit," Lodge recalled. "From Souilly to Chaumont, Pershing's headquarters, it was two hours — an almost impossible feat."

"One day I was late and tore up to the steps the motorcycle spattered Gen. Pershing with mud. His quick temper flared. His short riding crop, which was as much a part of his uniform as his highly polished boots, came up and down — across my knuckles."

Lodge, Pershing took a look at the sergeant's stripes on his sleeves and said sternly:

"What is your name, Private?"

"Lodge, sir, 69986, headquarters, 101st Infantry, 28th Division."

Lodge thereupon handed the general's aide the dispatches. The next morning he cut the sergeant's stripes off his sleeves before reporting for orders.

Registration for Draft to Begin Aug. 30

Washington, July 20 — (AP) — President Truman today issued a proclamation calling for the draft registration start Aug. 30.

On that date, persons born in 1922 after Aug. 30 will register. The proclamation also fixes the following dates for the registration of other youths between the ages of 18 and 25:

1. Persons born in the year 1923: Aug. 31 and Sept. 1.

2. Persons born in 1924: Sept. 2 and Sept. 3.

3. Persons born in the year 1925: Sept. 4 and Sept. 5.

4. Persons born in the year 1926: Sept. 6 and Sept. 7.

5. Persons born in the year 1927: Sept. 10 and Sept. 11.

6. Persons born in the year 1928: Sept. 13 and Sept. 14.

7. Persons born in the year 1929: Sept. 15 and Sept. 16.

8. Persons born in 1930 before Sept. 18: Sept. 17-18.

Boys born on or after Sept. 19, 1930, under the proclamation, will be registered on the day they are 18 years old or within five days thereafter.

The president's proclamation called on the governors of each of the states and the territories of Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands and the commissioners of the District of Columbia to comply with the drafting program to "accomplish of the law and complete registration."

There was nothing in the proclamation to indicate when actual inductions into the armed services will begin. By law, the draft can't start until Sept. 22. That is 90 days after Mr. Truman signed the Selective Service act.

60,000 Will Vote in State for 1st Time

Little Rock, July 20 — (AP) — Approximately 60,000 young persons in Arkansas are eligible to vote in the approaching Democratic primaries without payment of a poll tax, an official of the Young Democratic Clubs of Arkansas said today.

David Garrison, director of the organization, estimated this total as the number who have become 21 since April 10, 1947 and are entitled to free "maiden vote."

Attorney General Guy E. Williams held yesterday that such persons still are entitled to the maiden vote even though the 1947 legislature removed assessment as a requirement for poll tax payment.

"It is still the law," he said, "that a person who has attained the age of 21 years since the time of assessing tax next preceding said election (in this instance April 10, 1947) and possessing the necessary qualifications is entitled to vote as a maiden voter."

Garrison said these recent 21's would be paid special attention in the "get out the vote" campaign being launched by the young Democrats.

Moscow's Answer to Allied Threat Is Promise of Bread for the Hungry in Berlin

Berlin, July 20 — (AP) — With great propaganda fanfare the Russians announced today that they were prepared to supply food for all Berlin including the 2,000,000 German inhabitants of the western sectors whom they have blockaded for more than a month.

They claimed there would be able to do with the 100,000 tons of bread grains imported from the Soviet Union.

An announcement by the official Soviet News Bureau told Western Berliners they must get this food from the Soviet-sponsored German currency which circulates here as a rival to the Western-sponsored Deutschmark.

The announcement was timed to coincide with a statement by the Western Allies that they were unable because of the Russian land blockade to deliver proposed increases in food ration scales for their sectors of the city.

Thus the Soviet announcement was a double-barreled attack on the Western Powers. Not only did the Russians claim they could feed all Berliners but their announcement sought to discredit western sponsored currency as worthless for the primary function of buying food.

In Frankfurt Gen. Lucius D. Clay American military governor showed skepticism of the Russian offer to feed all Berlin.

"The proof is in the performance," not in the statement," said the U. S. commander, whose planes have been flying nearly 1,500 tons of food and coal a day over the Russian land blockade.

For a meeting of the British, French and U. S. military governors with German officials to discuss plans for forming a new German government in the three Western sectors.

Morning newspapers in Moscow said the decision to supply food for Berlin was taken by the Soviet Council of Ministers acting on the request of the Soviet military administration in Germany.

Russian-controlled newspapers in Berlin again attempted to discredit the American-British air lift which is supplying the blockaded Western sectors of the city with cargoes flown from Western Germany.

"The air bridge is without avail—all Berliners can buy their rations in the Soviet sector in the future," the Communist Press said. "Russian fighter planes have 'buzzed' the British airfield in Berlin. Western Allied officials said, however, that Soviet air tactics have not impeded the American-British aerial supply service to the city. The Russian blockade with its attendant economic paralysis of Berlin's industrial plants.

The first reaction of western Berliners to the Russian food announcement was somewhat cynical. Some said they would attempt to obtain the Soviet-offered food but one native Berliner employed in an American office commented:

"So now the Russians offer us food when they have shut it off from Western Germany. They say it is grain sent from the Soviet Union. But what about the low rations 16,000,000 Germans in the Russian occupation zone have endured? What about the millions of tons of food the Russians have taken out of their zone and shipped to Russia?"

Official German newspapers of both the American and British military governments repeatedly have stated that the Russians have been taking food out of the Soviet zone of Germany while the U. S. and Britain have been pouring hundreds of millions of dollars worth into Western Germany and Berlin to support the civilian ration.

The British official said that Western Berliners are getting the promised official rations by air supply. However, they will not be able to obtain the increases, originally scheduled to be delivered today, which should have amounted for a family of four to extra pounds of sugar and one loaf of bread a month.

The Russians clamped that autobahn shut today on all west-bound American vehicular traffic from Berlin to the first nine American vehicles attempting to reach Berlin in the British zone were turned back by Russian guards at the Soviet checkpoint east of that city. The reason given was that the American did not have Russian visas.

American officials have said they would never accept the recent Russian order demanding prior clearance of American vehicles by the Russians. Today the Soviet order had been enforced only haltingly.

The conference on the Berlin blockade was attended by British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault, Belgian Premier Paul-Henri Spaak, Luxembourg Premier Pierre Dupong, and Dutch Foreign Minister Barend Van Bockel.

A conference spokesman said all phases of the situation resulting from the blockade and the possibility of increasing the American-British air lift were discussed.

The main aim of the conference is to straighten out the five-nation 50-year alliance and consider the possibility of basing it on definite common goals of American military assistance.

A conference spokesman said the delegates also have drafted a program for strengthening the economic ties between their countries.

Europe for Cautious in Berlin Crisis

The Hague, Holland, July 20 — (AP) — The five powers of the Western European Union agreed today on a no-slow policy toward Russia in Germany.

The representatives of Britain, France, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg were represented as considering the crisis "extremely grave."

A usually well informed source said the five-nation council reached complete agreement on a cautious policy for all five countries in the dispute with Russia over Berlin.

This effect, presented the United States with a united front of the countries of western Europe interested in Germany. It showed them opposed to any show of force or ultimatum to Russia.

France prepared to propose formation of a federated western Europe. The spokesman of the French delegation said the proposal of Foreign Minister Georges Bidault would be made during a plenary session today.

The French spokesman said the strength of the proposal for early formation of a federated western Europe was weakened considerably by the fall of the Paris conference as observed at the French plan would receive little more than cursory inspection before being passed over for consideration at the council's next meeting in October.

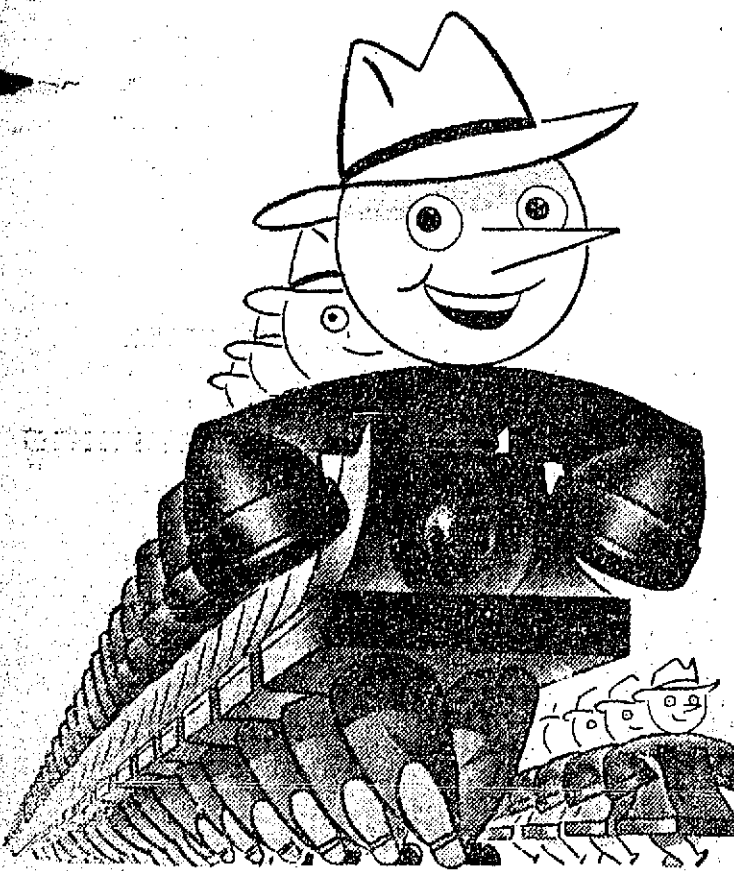

Bidault cancelled a train reservation which was to have taken him back to Paris tonight to confer on the new government crisis. He announced he would leave by plane this afternoon.

There were details of Bidault's plan. It was believed, however, it would suggest linking Norway, Sweden, Denmark, western Germany, Italy, Spain and Portugal with five nations in an air-tight federation.

Maj. Gen. Sir John Dill, deputy commander-in-chief of the U. S. National War College, and seven other U. S. officers, are in Europe as observers at the meeting of the military committee of the Western European Union.

The council studied means of tightening their military alliance but reached no important decisions, a conference spokesman said.

MORE NEW FARM TELEPHONES ON THE WAY

The number of rural telephones we've installed in the Southwest during the past two years is ten times greater than in any previous two-year period. Right now we are hard at work building still more farm telephone lines.

New telephone equipment is still short and it is urgently needed almost everywhere—both in the city and on the farm. But rural lines are getting their fair share of the new poles, cable, and wire that come from the factory.

We hope to bring service to virtually every farmer who wants it in all of the 700 exchanges we serve.

Get Welcome Relief From Stomach Gas. Sour Food Taste

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal? If so, here is how you may rid yourself of this nervous distress. Thousands have found it the way to be well, cheerful and happy again.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morose, touchy, irritable, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance.

This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia. It goes with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid purchasing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalis to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. ly has decided to renew his recommendation that Congress approve the $65,000,000 loan for U.N. headquarters.

He said Mr. Truman thinks it is particularly important in the program for peace.

"As another part of the general peace plan, the president will again ask the Senate for ratification of the international wheat agreement," Ross added.

The agreement was submitted to Congress last April 30. It was not ratified although hearings were held by a Senate foreign relations subcommittee.

The agreement called for approval by participating nations before last July 1. Ross said the United States "has reason to believe that if it is ratified at the special session" it can be put into effect even at this late date.

He said some nations, including Great Britain, either withdrew from the agreement or signified their intention of doing so when the U. S. failed to meet the deadline for ratification.

Under the agreement, the United States, Canada and Australia would supply up to 500,000,000 bushels of wheat a year for five years to Great Britain and other import countries at a price not to exceed $2 a bushel with a graduated minimum running from $1.50 a bushel the first year down to $1.10 the fifth year.

The United States would supply 185,000,000 bushels a year under the agreement.

The Republican platform called for action to give the so-called "tidelands" to the states. The Democratic convention, despite agitation for a similar plank from the Texas and California delegations, remained silent on the point.

The administration is opposed to any such move.

But the fight actually spreads across party lines. Such Republican senators as Donnell of Missouri and Tobey of New Hampshire are strongly opposed to it.

LET'S TAKE A GLANCE AT THE RECORD

Despite Distorted Reports To The Contrary — Your Present Congressman, Oren Harris, Has Served The Entire Congressional District In War Time and In Peace Time

HERE ARE A FEW FACTS ABOUT CONGRESSMAN HARRIS' WORK

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT

HIGH OCTANE PLANT —
ROOT PETROLEUM CO., EL DORADO

One of the first plants in the United States to achieve maximum production of high test gasoline aviation purposes. Now making high test gasoline for civilian use.

OSARK ORDINANCE PLANT, NOW
LION CHEMICAL PLANT, EL DORADO

This plant, the largest one of its kind in the United States, was used to make ammonia for explosives during the war, and has since been changed over to produce ammonia for nitrogenous fertilizers for domestic use.

NAVY ORDNANCE DEPOT, CAMDEN

PROVING GROUND,
ARMY ORDNANCE PLANT, HOPE

RE-LOCATION CENTER, CHICOT COUNTY

TREATING PLANTS,
COLUMBIA AND LAFAYETTE COUNTY

Due in large part to the unceasing work of Congressman Oren Harris gas treating plants to make the sour gas of Columbia and Lafayette county fields salable were constructed in the two counties. Big war industries which he also helped obtain for South Arkansas provided a ready outlet for this gas and the market benefitted the sellers of the gas. Otherwise the gas would have been strictly unusable and wasted. The Macedonia plant of Columbia county and the McKamie plant in Lafayette county, each costing approximately $1,500,000 handle huge quantities of gas.

TIMBER OWNERS AIDED

An Amendment whereby timber owners and lumber industry were aided also drew Mr. Harris' support.

FOR DEPLETION ALLOWANCE

Mr. Harris was in the forefront of the fight to retain the 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance for royalty owners. Again Congressman Harris supported House Resolution 50 which was passed after a court decision denied drilling companies to take credit on income tax for intangible drilling costs. These two measures insured that further exploration for new oil fields would continue — otherwise such work would practically have ceased.

TRANSPORTATION

AIRPORT, HOPE — AIRPORT, EL DORADO
(Now In Operation)

CAA Authorization for Airports in Crossett, Hamburg, Warren, Camden, Gurdan, Arkadelphia

All these airports to receive government aid as soon as the municipalities are ready to act.

EDUCATIONAL

With the help of Congressman Harris, contracts for training aviation cadets were awarded to —

Ouachita and Henderson Colleges, Clark County

RADIO STATIONS

Through the efforts of Congressman Harris, FCC granted radio station permits for new stations at —

HOPE, ARKADDELPHIA, CAMDEN, MAGNOLIA

$8,000,000.00 PER YEAR FEDERAL AID HIGHWAYS

Came back to Arkansas since the War and continued aid is provided for until 1952.

FLOOD CONTROL

Congressman Oren Harris worked for and helped attain —

$12,000,000.00 Blakely Mountain Dam
$7,000,000.00 Narrows Dam and Channel Clearance, Little Missouri River
Levy Protection and Storage, Red River
Closed Fuse Plug on Arkansas Side Mississippi River
$3,000,000.00 Beauf-Tensas Rivers and Bayou Macon.

KAISER

FRAZER

Service wherever you go

In just two years we've built and sold more fine cars than any other new manufacturer in automobile history.

Why? Because America fell in love with the KAISER and the FRAZER on sight. Folks are streaming into Kaiser-Frazer showrooms and learning from present owners how dependable these two great cars are. They're learning — from people who drive them — how soundly they are built . . . how economical they are . . . how much joy there is in owning one.

THESE ARE THE MOST-COPIED CARS IN AMERICA, road-proved by 250,000 owners in two billion miles of driving.

Because plenty of Americans insist on comfort, convenience, style and value, traditional leaders had to "move over" — as Kaiser-Frazer became the fourth largest manufacturer of motor cars in the world in two short years.

Why wait? Enjoy your new car this summer. You'll get fair treatment and highest trade-in allowance.

Cure for Marital Ills

LaGrossa Is Paralysis Chapter Head

The Hempstead County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Inc. has been organized with headquarters in Hope, LaGrossa, chapter chairman, announced today. The chapter was organized after the dissolution of the Arkansas State Chapter, but will not assume official status until the whole state is organized.

The state chapter, chairman of which was W. H. Sadler, with the Executive Director being Sam J. Watkins, both of Little Rock, was dissolved in order that the people of each county of the state be given the opportunity of taking care of their community's poliomyelitis cases. Under the new plan, one-half of the money raised in the annual March of Dimes campaign will be retained in the county for local use. The state chapter has functioned extremely well over a period of many years, and enough praise cannot be heaped upon Mr. Sadler and Mr. Watkins.

The officers elected to chapter membership in addition to Chairman LaGrossa were:

Vice-Chairman, Rev. S. A. Whitlow.
Secretary, Jack Cleary.
Treasurer, Syd McMath.

Other members of the Executive Committee are: Mitchell Sparks, Foy Hammons and Terrell Cornelius.

Other chapter members are: L. B. Tooley, Earl Young, Alex Washburn, Miss Lucille Kuggles, Miss Barbara Ann Griffin, Earl Clifton, Henry Haynes, Dorsey Fuller, Joe Jones, Syvella Burke, Kelly Bryant.

Besides the election of officers, the following appointments were made: Dr. Walter Sims, medical advisory chairman; Mrs. Foy Hammons, Women's committee chairman, and Mr. Cornelius, fund raising chairman.

New members will be added from all over the county as time permits. The Hempstead County Chapter, when officially activated, will be ready, willing and able to render services to all patients of poliomyelitis, regardless of age, race, color or creed, when assistance is needed.

Business pertaining to infantile paralysis will continue to be handled through the Arkansas State Chapter, until official installation of the Hempstead County Chapter.

The one unfailing remedy for an unhappy marriage is soft soap. Apply plenty of that on the sore spots and a cure is guaranteed. Try this faithfully for 30 days and if it doesn't work you can get your money back and a handsome divorce certificate framed in gold.

You see, the trouble with most married couples who cannot get along with each other is that they don't know what ails them, nor why they disagree so badly with each other. The husband knows that his wife is a conscientious mother and a good cook. The wife appreciates that her husband possesses all of the domestic virtues, and then some. They know they should live together in peace and harmony, but instead of that they are in a perpetual brawl.

They have tried all sorts of nostrums for this soul sickness without getting any results. But no matter how many good resolutions they make they still get in each other's hair. Every word is to the fighting word, and their friends mean over them and say it's just too bad that Johnny's and Mary's marriage is such a failure.

Grave Appreciation
Unhappy marriages are as plentiful as pig-sticks, and most of them come from the same cause. But, curiously enough, few of those afflicted with the ailment ever seem to realize what their trouble is or to do anything to cure it.

For what's the matter with 99 out of 100 disgruntled husbands and wives is that they are simply starving for flattery, for appreciation and being fussed over.

Every man baits his hook with sweet talk when he goes a-courting. He tells the girl he wants how beautiful and wonderful and intelligent and fascinating she is, for he knows well enough that she wouldn't have him on a bet if he dwelt upon her faults and defects.

But that same man, after he is married, may never pay his wife a compliment or show in any way that he appreciates all the hard work she does to make him a comfortable home. Many a great lover turns into a champion fault-finder before the honeymoon is even over.

And many women treat the men whom they are married to exactly the same starvation diet. They take all of the hard work and the sacrifices that their husbands make, to give them comforts and luxuries, without ever so much as saying "Thank you." Instead of praising they hand their husbands knocks and feel themselves defrauded because their milk coats are not sable.

It is the general belief that there is no cure for the disillusion of married life, but this is a mistake. There is a homemade remedy for that never fails. It is soft soap. It is flattery. It is appreciation.

It is husbands and wives always building up their mates and making them feel that even if the balance of the world falls to appreciate how marvelous they are, there is one person who does burn incense before them.

The sure cure for an unhappy marriage is for the husband and wife to keep each other buttered up. If you doubt this, try the experiment.

Sons Last to Wed

Until lately, it was not customary for sons in Greece to marry until all the daughters in the family were wed. Sons helped provide their sisters with wedding outfits to hasten their marriages.

Fair Enough

New York, July 20 — In one final, thundering, dazzling blast of humbug, hypocrisy and confusion, the Democrats blew up their convention and went along home reasonably proud of a job well done. This explosion had to be and they made it a good one.

None among them had entertained the slightest doubt all week that the gray train was in the ditch at last. Therefore, there remained no reason to continue the pretense that the true Democrats of the Deep South had anything in common with Eleanor the Great and the "minority" racketeers, the union gaudifiers and the Carleys and Kellys and Farleys of the North.

As long back as the fourth term convention of 1944 in Chicago, when their late mahatma deigned to accept the nomination without a word of thanks to the piddles mob in the hall, he had noted that there was an aggregation of mutually hateful elements held together nevertheless by the gall and guile of a faker. So the obvious order of business was an open confession of opinion by all these fearful inmates of the crazy house.

The Southern Democrat is less aloof toward Negroes than the late Roosevelt himself was all his life, but he is more honest in all his statements of policy.

Only 75 years ago, within the life of his grandfather, the Southern white man was Jim Crowed by an illiterate, undisputed horde of freedmen who were stimulated to conduct by unscrupulous whites. These carpetbaggers were the true political and moral fathers of the left-wing Northern New Dealers of today.

The Southern white man was a good man, a decent man, a man of the polls while the Negroes were encouraged to vote away his last trifles of liberty and property. Finally, he was forced to organize the Ku Klux Klan.

His policy is that he will never let that happen again. He has never been persuaded by any of the vague assurances of the Northern white Democrats, who rarely took the trouble to try to persuade him, anyway. On the contrary, most of them have grinningly indicated that another spell of humbug would serve them right.

The Roosevelt party contained the third party of the Ku Klux Klan, and powerful household for all his 12 years and for about two of Harry Truman's years, besides. Not only that, but Brooklyn Catholic and Brooklyn Communist.

Walker Cooper and Bobby Thomson walked in the same parade, and pulled the same levers on "B.J." day. And some of the most intolerant bigots in the notably hysterical story of American politics of the past century, took to the bench in the federal courts to preach the official text of liberal doctrine. Notorious among them, but by no means the worst, Hugo Black, now often called the wisest of the Supreme Court.

One reason, the most important reason, in fact, why the mahatma of the United States, who took to the position was that the most voluminous of its intellect and courage followed a rule of censorship and suppression throughout his reign, was that he relied on the reliance and fear of all elements in life, in a state of armistice.

At one stage of the last awful night of gas, noise and clammy proximity in Philadelphia, a Deep South statesman struck the only honest note that was sounded in the confusion. He warned the brethren of the North not to try to force the political support of "un-American" in the North. But even he, that liberal, that "minority" leader, and the muzzle fits so snugly that, in the entire file of a thousand million words addressed to the eye and ear from that convention, they were not named.

The Democratic Party under Roosevelt forbade price-cutting, forced national quotas, and violation of the National Recovery Act, which Maurice Tobin, the governor of Massachusetts, extolled on closing night. In another phase of the same dispensation, citizens were set to jail for raising prices. Employers were pilloried for paying meagerly wages and threatened with jail for raising the wages of individuals on the ground that such raises were intended to persuade them to join unions, were necessary to the progress of the Southern states, which had almost no mob violence, were threatened with an anti-lynching law by this convention in a resolution pushed through by states where union mobs ran wild.

In the final end of it, Jimmy Roosevelt, a parasite on the party and his father's position for fifteen years and part of that time a leader of the opposition to such as the one man his father selected to carry on, And Hague and Kelly and O'Dwyer, of New York, Catholics all and stalwarts of reaction, were found on the side of Justice William O. Douglas, who is somewhat to the left of Henry Wallace, the candidate of Josef Stalin.

Fred Robertson, district softball commissioner, announced today that the District Softball Tournament will be held in Texarkana has been changed from July 26, as originally scheduled, to August 2 through 6. The reason for the change is to give more time before the tournament in Texarkana and the district play.

The counties included in this district are:

Hempstead, Miller, Lafayette, Little River, Pike, Sevier, Howard, and others.

Any team in the above counties that wishes to enter in the tournament is asked to contact Alva J. Elie, Jr., Recreational Supervisor, Texarkana, Ark., for full details.

Mr. Elie will be in charge of the tournament and will be eligible to participate in the State tournament to be held in Little Rock, August 23-30. All entries for the district must be in not later than July 30, 1948.

Let that happen again. He has never been persuaded by any of the vague assurances of the Northern white Democrats, who rarely took the trouble to try to persuade him, anyway. On the contrary, most of them have grinningly indicated that another spell of humbug would serve them right.

and Forrest Edward Wharton, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wharton of Pine Bluff, was solemnized in the First Baptist Church, 121 Dorado, Sunday afternoon, July 11, at 4 o'clock, before a background of Majestic daisies, white gladioli and huckleberry foliage.

Candles burning in many branched candelabra and daisies in a white urn marked the place of ceremony. Arches, baskets of gladioli and additional candles were on either side. Huckleberry foliage screened the choir stall. The bride and groom knelt on a prie dieu for the nuptial blessing.

The candles were lighted by Kenneth Helvie of Pine Bluff, nephew of the bridegroom, and James Edward Duke of Prescott, nephew of the bride.

The Rev. Sam C. Reeves performed the simple ring ceremony and Mrs. Roy Hopper, organist, and Alva Waddell, vocalist, presented a program of songs. Mr. Waddell's selections were "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Hopper played "Lutes-trium," "Clair de Lune" and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Roy L. Duke, Sr., of Prescott. She was lovely in a gown of white satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, calli-ly sleeves and a long train. The shoulders of the dress were en-embroidered with seed pearls. Her full-length veil of illusion was at-tached to a Mary, Queen of Scots headress, trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white pray-erbook topped with white orchids and Stephanotis.

Her matron of honor and only attendant was her sister-in-law,

Mrs. Jimmie Duke of Prescott. Mrs. Duke wore an afternoon dress of blue marquisette and a bandeau of gold sequins. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses tied with ribbon that matched her frock.

Mr. Wharton's best man was his brother, C. R. Wharton, Jr., of Pine Bluff. Jimmie Duke of Prescott and Owen Duke of Dallas, brothers of the bride, and James Tulley and Emmette Gathright, both of El Dorado, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a flowered crepe dress, accented by white accessories and a corsage of carnations and tuberoses. The bridegroom's mother was gown-ed in black sheer. She used match-ing accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations and tuberoses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. E. F. Gathright, 206 South New-ton Avenue. Roses adorned the mantel in the living room, while white gladioli were at other points of vantage in the room. The bride's table in the dining room was covered with a crocheted cloth and centered with the bridal bouquet on a diamond-shaped re-flector. White tapers in crystal holders tied with white satin bows burned at the corners of the re-flector. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom was at one end of the table and the punch-bowl, at the other. Daisies decorated the buf-fet.

Mrs. T. Hollingsworth presided at the punch-bowl and Mrs. Leslie Helvie cut the cake. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. E. F. Gathright, Mrs. Homer Braswell, Mrs. Millard Gathright and Mrs. Mary Poole. Miss Marion Braswell was in charge of the bride's register.

The bride and groom left later in the afternoon on a trip to New Orleans and other points of in-terest in the South. After 16, they will be at home at 410 Thompson Avenue. Mrs. Wharton was at-tractively attired in a suit of light blue silk with a white pin stripe and carried a dusty rose bag ad-orned with a single white orchid and a matching hat of rose. Her shoes were of light blue kid.

The wedding of Jimmie Duke of Prescott High School and Magnolia A. and M., and Henderson State Teachers College. She taught in the schools of Prescott for four years. For the last five years she has been associated with Lion Oil Company in the Chemical Divi-sion.

Futrell Denies He's for McMath

Little Rock, July 19 (AP)—For-mer Gov. J. Marion Futrell said today he was not supporting gubernatorial candidate Sid McMath.

McMath's headquarters released a statement Saturday over Fut-rell's signature in which the former governor endorsed a road fin-ancing program proposed by McMath. The same statement criticized programs advanced by Jack Holt and Horace Thompson, who also are seeking the governor's nomination.

Futrell said in his home at Par-agould today that he did not con-sider his statement reflected full support of McMath. He said he ex-pected McMath and Thompson to be in the runoff and that he would judge which road plan was fa-vored most by the results of the vote in that primary.

"If anything else was construed from my signed statement I didn't mean it that way," the former gov-ernor said.

Since 1921, American Jews have contributed more than $250,000,000 in Palestine.

Uncle Mac SAYS:

James "Uncle Mac" MacKrell

All of my opponents are my personal friends and I talk free-ly with everyone of them. I want you as a VOTER to know that I have NOT made any sort of trade or agreement with any of them nor their sup-porters and I have refused to take one penny of their money. I honestly believe that the majority of working people and country people will employ me as their Governor, July 27th, to work for them, that will be the biggest political upset in our history—that we will win with-out a runoff.

WARNING! Don't miss the state-wide Homecoming Rally at Mabelvale Friday night, July 23rd, at 7:30. Every voter in Arkansas will get the BIGGEST SURPRISE of the entire cam-paign at 9 o'clock that night when we go on the state-wide network of all stations.

The quartet and myself will be at Cabot, Ark., tonight at the American Legion and V.F.W. Park at 8 o'clock. Please be with us.

Sincerely, your servant,

James "Uncle Mac" MacKrell

WHAT'S THE PRICE OF A BUICK?

7 out of 10 Guess Too High!

WE'll admit that this husky two-ton honey looks like something super duper.

When you sample its ride, its handling and the silken liveli-ness of its big Fireball straight-eight power plant, you are likely to ticket it in the near-luxury class.

So, naturally, when we put the question to a cross section of carwise men and women—when we asked them to name their idea of the delivered price for a Buick SUPER—7 out of 10 guessed too high!

The fact is that—in relation to today's values—Buick prices begin at a lower level than be-fore the war.

Dollar-wise, all prices are up—but Buick cars are not up as much as most other things—or even as much as the cost of building them.

So don't jump to conclusions without a bit of shopping around. Get the delivered prices—not only on Buick but on others, too—including cars with far less power, far less heft, far less room and far less distinction.

You'll find that a lot of folks are paying within a few dollars of the price of a Buick—or may-be more than the price of a Buick—and getting something that can't hold a candle to what a Buick has to offer.

You'll find that price compari-son gives you another sound reason for getting your firm order in—particularly since your Buick dealer will take it with or without a car to trade.
